Fanning the Flames of Leadership
Wood Badge 2013

An Opportunity to Magnify Your Scouting and Personal Leadership Skills to Help You Strengthen Your Unit.

Training for Cub Scout, Boy Scout, Varsity, Sea Scout and Venturing Leaders

Celebrate Over 100 Years of Scouting by Participating in Advanced Leadership Training

Wood Badge is:

- Scouting's Premier Training Course
- A "Mountain-Top" Experience
- An Experience in the Patrol Method
- Practical Learning of Scouting's Skills and Methods
- A Realization of the Boy Scout Mission, Vision, and Values
- A Worldwide Experience
- 94 Years Old

There are three phases to Wood Badge training – Theoretical, Practical, and Application. This method of teaching leadership skills has developed and inspired tens of thousands of Scouters, who in turn have affected the lives of millions of the world's youth and many have also discovered ways to more effectively lead in their work, homes and personal lives. Similar courses are offered professionally at significant expense.

Who may attend:

- Anyone who –
  - o Is a registered member of the Boy Scouts of America.
  - o Is at least 18 years of age.
  - o Has completed Basic training in their registered Scouting position.
  - o Has a current Annual Health and Medical Record form.

The 2013 Wood Badge course will consist of Two 3-Day Sessions (Fri - Sun)

weekend 1
April 12-14, Camp Clark

weekend 2
May 3-5, Camp Clark

Register on-line at www.cpcbsa.org/register
Cost: $210.00, a deposit of $85.00 is required when registering.

Course leader: John Caputo
Phone: 503-550-7973
E-mail: jcap97132@gmail.com

Applications will be reviewed on a first-come, first-served basis until the course is filled.