

HOT SHEET

February
2005
Roundtable
www.cpcbsa.org

Scouting News for the Month Presented by Great Chinook District

Goodwill Day is a project in which we collect re-usable household items for Goodwill Industries on March 5th. This is a Good Turn for America project, so your Scouts will qualify for two patches: a Goodwill segment or patch (free), and the Good Turn for America patch (from Scout Stores). Our district Goodwill Day Chair is Gerald Selde (Phone Number).
-----

2005 is the 75th Anniversary of Cub Scouting! Packs are encouraged to hold a celebration this year, and several special awards are available. Look for the flyer at roundtable, and more information online at www.cpcbsa.org.
-----

Good Turn for America is a national call to service to address the issues of hunger, homelessness, and health in our nation. As units plan and carry-out service projects, each will have the ability to report their success on a new national website using a name and password to be distributed to each unit in February.

More information is on the Good Turn for America website (goodturnforamerica.org). Participating youth qualify for a special patch, with a segment for each year.
-----

Red Cross needs blood drives organized by Scout units. This is a CAMPOREE District Camporee "On to the Pacific" is April 29 –May 1, at Camp Lewis. This is the last of the three year series honoring the Lewis & Clark Expedition. Registration forms and information is in the Roundtable Boxes. Contact Jim Rossetti (503) 556-2467 or rossetti@ados.com.

SCOUTCAPADES March 12th at the Three Rivers Mall begin at 10 am. District Pinewood Derby Race and Car show. Chances for packs, troops and crews to show their stuff. Register to have a booth now. Call Gerald Selde (360) 423-6907 for more info. Leader's guide were distributed at Feb Roundtable.

CASA The Child's Advocate Support Agency has invited us to participate in their annual "Protect the Child" event at the Cowlitz Expo Center April . The district will man a booth at this event and Volunteers and units are invited to join us in this outstanding event. Contact Janet Johnson at 360. to set up your own booth or contact Scott to assist at the district display.

cooperative effort of Scouting and the American Red Cross as part of the Good Turn for America campaign. To begin, look for the flyer at roundtable or contact your closest American Red Cross chapter office. This is a great way to organize a service project that qualifies for Good Turn for America awards.
-----

Advancement Extravaganza is a one-day training event for anyone needing information about Scouting advancement. Instructors will cover various topics and answer all your advancement questions. Plan to attend February 26th...and look for the sign-up form at roundtable and online at www.cpcbsa.org.
-----

Share the Scouting Story During Anniversary Week!

Anniversary Week (Feb 6-12) is a prime time to celebrate Scouting in our local community. Units are encouraged to arrange for youth to wear uniforms to school, to hold a Scouting Anniversary celebration, offer speakers to local service clubs and churches to share the history and importance of Scouting, and to promote Scouting in other ways. Information available at www.cpcbsa.org.
-----

Outdoor Skills Institute is a weekend of learning for any Boy Scout leader wishing

FOS We are "Reaching for the Stars" with a good start, in the Family Friends of Scouting is off. Contact the district office or John Dick for presentation assistance. Turn in immediately after your presentation. Follow on turn ins will occur in March. Let's get our presidential status and have a worry free summer! Go for the stars! $3,085 raised to date!

Order of the Arrow Are you an Arrowman? Do you have scouts that are? Have you or they been to a OA Chapter meeting in the last four months? If you answered: Yes, Yes & No. Visit your chapter, support your Arrowmen and support service to scouting by participating in the Order of the Arrow. Chapter meetings are the Second Thursday of every month at 900 11th Ave in Longview. Call Rick Durst, Chapter advisor

Candy Sales Kick Off this Thursday! Earn money for camp. Need camping gear? Need to request opportunity funds for camp? Sell Candy and earn all or part of your camp fee. Contact Jamie Rossetti for more info. (503) 556-24657. If your unit is not doing candy sales contact the to improve their outdoor and adventure skills, and offer better adventures for their Scouts. Plan to attend April 22-24, and look for the sign-up form at roundtables and online at www.cpcbsa.org.

-----

Are Your Boys Signed-up for Camp?

Cub Scouts (including Tigers) and Boy Scouts can attend camp this summer; a tremendous way to keep them excited in Scouting!

Contact 503.226.3423 about available sessions, or visit www.cpcbsa.org for a up-to-date list of open dates and reservation forms. See you at camp!
-----

Adult Leader Training is available in our district. Upcoming training opportunities include:

Omnibus Training, March 19th, 8 am, in Longview. Please ask our training chair Sharon Kuroda (360) 423-6564, about these upcoming training opportunities.
-----

Know an Outstanding Scouter?

Nominations are now being accepted for the highest award a council can give: the Silver Beaver Award. Our district Nomination Coordinator is Sharon Kuroda (360) 423-6564. Please ask this person how to submit a nomination by February 28th.

district office. The district is selling as a unit, this year and will take on individual scouts to sell for the district..

An Opportunity to Serve The district's Scoutreach program is looking for volunteers, adults and youth to assist in the Afterschool programs at Wallace, Olympic and Broadway Elementary Schools. Contact the DE, 423-6960 if you or your unit is interested in bringing scouting to kids who would not experience what you have. Reach out, be a Scout.

Great Chinook District Office has moved down the hall to Suite 106. We now offer an expanded Trading Post, a Volunteer Services Room and a cubby hole to stick the DE in. Phone numbers and e-mail are the same. Come see us y'all!

District Earns Quality District Award for 2004. Thanks to your outstanding efforts, thank you for bringing quality to Scouting.

Your District Executive is Scott W. Johnson at sjohnson@cpcbsa.org. Your Trading Post Manage is Sue Mortimer at smortimer@cpcbsa.org. 360 423-6960