2018 Eagle Scout Celebration SPONSORSHIP OVERVIEW

The annual Eagle Scout Celebration (hosted at the Sentinel on April 17, 2018) provides the opportunity for Scouting's best and brightest young men to connect with top community leaders. This year, as in the last 20 years more than 500 young men are on the path to earning the nationally acclaimed rank of Eagle Scout. In addition to honoring these young men 10 academic scholarships will also be awarded and Jeff Pinneo, Trustee at the M. J. Murdock Charitable Trust will be recognized with the Distinguished Eagle Scout Award by former DESA recipient Brad Tilden, President and CEO, Alaska Airlines.

This event also helps connect our newest Eagle Scouts to Eagle Scout alumni and other community leaders who serve as table hosts during the event. These young men, along with their parents and top-level business representatives are invited to a dinner and program honoring their accomplishments.
